

A message from Mrs Hardy

Dear Children

First of all I hope you are all well.

I am sitting at my desk in our school which is very quiet and the usual sounds I hear are not there. We are missing you all very much.

I speak with your teachers all the time and I am pleased to hear that so many of you are doing your work and sending it to your teachers, well done, keep it up. It is really important that you are doing the work on your year group blog.

You can email you teachers on their gmail accounts that are on the blog, they love to hear from you.

If you are stuck getting on to the home learning, either myself, Mr Gayle or Mrs Handley are in school every day so get an adult to ring the school office and we will help them.

The next two weeks are the Easter holidays. Your teachers have put activities and some learning on your blogs to keep you busy and stop you from getting too bored.

I will write to you all again soon, but for now, take care, make good choices for the adults at home and have a happy Easter with your families.

I look forward to us all being back together in school.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs Hardy

Headteacher
